APRIL 2010

Dear Members and Friends,

I write this as I revel in the aftermath of something of a magical musical weekend. I was privileged to attend the magnificent production put on by the Southeastern New England Chorister's Guild in Quincy on Saturday (see below). I was at times deeply moved by our celebration/commemoration of the 325th birthday of Johann Sebastian Bach this morning in worship. And just hours ago in Fellowship Hall, I and fifty-five others were profoundly touched, inspired and delighted by the wonderful piano music, informative commentary and poignant personal vignettes of Dr. David Burge and Evon Burge in their recital. Our Lord has certainly blessed our congregation with the gift of music; thank you to all who labor so diligently to generously share your commendable talents in service and worship to God for our inspiration and edification. Thanks also to the Williams family (and Steve Nazareth) for supplying/coordinating/serving the delicious food (especially the gigantic sub!) following the Burge recital; what a treat for all!

Hope to see you at any (and all!) of the events planned for this special time of the church year.

Stephen L. Clark, Pastor

Southeastern New England Chapter Third Annual Children's Choir Festival Sacred Heart Parish, Quincy, MA March 20, 2010

Once again, our Joyful Song youth choir was among the 135 or so present for this day long festival, and the closing concert/worship service was a most inspirational and delightful experience for me and for all who were in attendance. Thank you to Music Director Kathy Hart, who, in addition to training our young people, also played the magnificent pipe organ at Sacred Heart for this event, to parent/chaperones Virginia Jacobs and Kim D'Antico, AND to Julia D'Antico, Jillian Jacobs, Alex and Greg Harrop for mastering some very challenging music and so faithfully representing Greenwood Community Church in this marvelous production!
